

CI 269 B Peacock

First name: Brett

Last name: Peacock

Q1:

Yes.

Q2:

Improve classification standards to allow Australians to access material that is commonly available in other countries.

Q3:

No, as it is removing our rights to access what is commonly available in other countries.

Q4:

It should be considered on a case by case scenario.

Q5:

Of course. Classification should pass a set of rules and regulations before classified.

Q6:

No. It should be an equal process, where each item is treated fairly.

Q7:

It should be dealt with on a case-by-case basis.

Q8:

No.

Q9:

No

Q10:

No.

Q11:

N/a

Q12:

Adults should be able to access what material they deem "normal", whereas if content is against laws (terrorism, etc), these should be filtered.

Q13:

Parents should be given methods of controlling what they deem "safe" materials.

Q14:

Introduce liscencing to sell such materials (much like a liquor liscence, etc)

Q15:

Online, prior to entering or purchasing content. Offline, clearly label classifications.

Q16:

N/a

Q17:

It is fine how it is.

Q18:

N/a

Q19:

Yes. It should be calculated as a tax for each item, to who produced it.

Q20:

Banned items due to not meeting standards. Such as violent videogames.

Q21:

Yes, a level above R rating to allow for items such as "too violent" videogames

Q22:

Standardize them.

Q23:

No. It should be altered to meet ever changing trends.

Q24:

Child pornography, acts of terrorism and such.

Q25:

For the most part.

Q26:

It should be uniform across all states and territories. And advertised to become public knowledge.

Q27:

A uniform one.

Q28:

Yes

Q29:

Give us more options!

Other comments: