Last name: Janush

Q1:

Yes, it is shown that compared to the rest of the world that we are behind the times. We need to look at the MA15+ rating or introduce a R18+ rating to replace what is the MA15+ now

Q2:

To be able to treat adults like adults and be able to deny children under age of playing violent games.

Q3:

Yes, it needs to be looked at by a number of people of different beliefs and be judged on not just 20 mins of gameplay.

Q4:

No not at all

Q5:

Yes and No, the impact of how bad a game is should be justified in the rating, if it is a very violent game that adults should only see then an R18+ rating should show the impact that the game will have. If it is designed for children and fits into a G rating then yes all media should show it as G

Q6:

No

Q7:

Yes, if it shows graphic imagery then it should be classified just as the media will be.

Q8:

Yes, music, movies, games all types of media should be.

Q9:

Yes, if it were that more people where for the classification of media to those opposed then by the majority it should be.

Q10:

No, but depending on the surroundings and who it is displayed to should also fall into the category of what the media is.

Q11:

Age group, graphic nature, language, nudity and violence

Q12:

Parental permission, if you are an adult you should have the right to access any media you require, depending on what it is the classifications of these should be just like all other media

Q13:

Parents, its all up to the parenting of the children to what they access and controlling classifications (laws of selling against under aged children)

Q14:

Credit card access or drivers licence

Q15:

When it is for sale in any place in australia. It needs to be marked so that it can be checked by the seller and the buyer

Q16:

Laws for the classifications need to be upheld like any other law within the country or be charged.

Q17:

YES

Q18:

VIDEO GAMES, an R18+ rating is OBVIOUS as the rest of the world has one yet we still let these games come in under MA15+. Content that is R18+ should be for only adults as 18 is the age of an adult, therefore the media viewed will be up to them.

Q19:

No

Q20:

no, many parents still allow MA15+ games to be bought by young children. It makes me angry to see this happen on a daily basis. With the R18+ a drivers licence or a form of id must be shown and therefore the understanding of such a highly classified media would make more sense.

Q21:

YES! As said before...Many parents still allow MA15+ games to be bought by young children. It makes me angry to see this happen on a daily basis. With the R18+ a drivers licence or a form of id must be shown and therefore the understanding of such a highly classified media would make more sense. If anything remove the MA15+ and bring in a R18+ if we must, keeping G, PG, M and R18

Q22:

By keeping things in form with one another.

Q23:

Yes

Q24:

None

Q25:

No

Q26:

No

Q27:
