Q1:

yes they should focus on a R18+ rating for adult gamers

Q2:

to get out of the dark ages

to give freedom to what we do what we want to play,view,display

Q3:

technology is moving too fast to be classified so it should not be classified and left to the publics discretion because its up to oneself to decide what to veiw or not

Q4:

complaints allways happen even if oneseid is unhappy and its usaly done so by rightwing people

Q5:

no matter if content is classified or not it has an impact

Q6:

Q7:

no artworks are meant to be viewed you cant slap classifacations of somthing historical as art of any form

Q8:

no they should not be as i said erlier it should be left to the person wanting to read the book or listen to the music

Q9:

yes the potential size and compisition of the audience should effect this over 80% of australian citizens are calling for R18+ rating for games

Q10:

the fact is if its accessed or not at home or in public is irelivant if its accessed you cannot classify everything

Q11:

the people wanting this

freedom to exercise the choice of being an adult

freedom of speach

freedom to information

Q12:

you cannot control the internet so why bother trying

Q13:

children will find other ways to gain access if there is no better way to stop it then the parents teaching them how to use the internet safely and leave it to them as it is really no ones business except said parents

Q14:

it cant its sufficient

Q15:

its not really needed

Q16:

the government should not be a nanny state and should let the people decide for themselves

Q17:

Q18:

Q19:

Q20:

Q21:

there is need for R18+ ratings for games as technology has advanced

Q22:

go back to the old rating system where they werent big ugly colored rectangle things

Q23:

Q24:

none because it cant be done [can you please tell the people who think otherwise who ever reads this please]

Q25:

as said in the last question IT CANT BE DONE over 100 billion pages and growing 1 million a day and it would be a waste of money and man power to control this

Q26:

no they are not important

Q27:

classification scheme should be abolished all together

Q28:

classification scheme should be abolished all together

Q29:

classification scheme should be abolished all together

Other comments:

i am speaking out for 85% of my generation when i answered this censoring and sheltering is not a way to protect anyone it makes things far worse it should be up to ones self to decide what to view and what not to view not someone else and wasting millions of tax payers money is not something that should be used to try and filter it or censor what people view otherwise it creates bigger problems
