

CI 213 P Langford

First name: Peter

Last name: Langford

Q1: ALRC should not be involved in classification framework development.

Q2: Freedom to let the public decide for themselves what is and what is not appropriate for the individual.

Q3:

No

Q4: No, classification should not evolve from complaints.

Q5: Parents should be the ones deciding what their children watch

Q6:

No

Q7:

No

Q8:

No

Q9:

No

Q10:

No

Q11:

Classification should be left to the individual.

Q12:

Online content should not be controlled.

Q13:

Parental guidance

Q14:

It should not be controlled.

Q15:

Never

Q16:

Minimal

Q17:

Yes

Q18:

All

Q19:

Q20:

yes

Q21:

No, too many already

Q22:

Get rid of them.

Q23:

Scrapped

Q24:

Nil

Q25:

Q26:

Yes. get rid of them.

Q27:

Power to the individual to freely choose

Q28:

No

Q29:

Liberalisation, let the individual decide

Other comments:

We need less rules and regulations not more, we should be free to view, read, listen too whatever we feel comfortable with, we do not need the nanny state mentality.