Q11:

Q12 Internet censorship should be left to the individual. It is the parents responsibility to restrict what children access in their own home.

Q13: Better education for parents. A draconian national filter will not suffice, it is better to educate parents on how to protect their children. After all, it is a parents job to decide what children view, not the governments.

Q18: Video Games, Movies

Q19:

Q20: I think they are understood, but the R18+ rating NEEDS to be extended to video games. Currently games that should fall in the r18+ category are sneaking in as MA15+ which means parents are unable to make properly informed decisions.

Q21: There should be a better distinction between M and MA
