

CI 850 G Frost

First name: Garrett

Last name: Frost

Q1:

Improving key elements

Q2:

To have a fair ratings scheme across all forms of media, from movies to videogames to literature.

Q3:

No it should make no difference

Q4:

No, this opens the classification scheme up to people complaining about certain things they do not approve of possibly being refused classification

Q5:

Q6:

No, each item should be classified based on its own merits, not on how popular or unpopular it may be.

Q7:

Q8:

Yes

Q9:

no

Q10:

no

Q11:

Q12:

Parents actually doing their job and watching what their children do

Q13:

Having better parents

Q14:

Q15:

Q16:

Q17:

Q18:

Industry classification shouldn't really happen

Q19:

Q20:

Q21:

Yes, an R18+ category for Videogames is a must as this is the most popular form of media on the planet, yet games are refused classification due to not having this level of rating. Why are games treated any differently to movies which have R18+ ratings and are publicly displayed on shelves everywhere.

Q22:

Q23:

Q24:

Q25:

Q26:

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

Other comments: