

Australian Government

Australian Law Reform Commission

Media Release

5 November 2018

ALRC Family Law System Review – Resignation of Professor Helen Rhoades

Professor Helen Rhoades, who has been leading the ALRC Family Law System Review, has tendered her resignation effective at midnight tonight due to ill health and will be undergoing surgery within the next fortnight.

The ALRC's President, Justice S C Derrington, will be leading the Review which is due to report on 31 March 2019.

The ALRC thanks Professor Rhoades for her outstanding contribution in leading the Review and wishes her a speedy recovery.