

CI 1038 L Moylan

First name: Liam

Last name: Moylan

Q1:

Yes

Q2:

Bring in an R 18+ classification

Q3:

all (non illegal) content should be allowed for R 18+

Q4:

Yes

Q5:

Open forms of media should be classified for youngest age groups. Private media should be classified according to content.

Q6:

No

Q7:

Only if exhibited in open public areas eg. on the street

Q8:

If complaints are made

Q9:

No

Q10:

Definitely

Q11:

Q12:

Tainted content should be observed and noted, then regular users should be tracked and investigated

Q13:

Parental controls should be instituted. Not a blanket control. Free content restricting software should be made available by the government.

Q14:

Age classifications only on purchase.

Q15:

If it is designed for over 15 use.

Q16:

if content is questionable, an R 18+ rating should be classified and media allowed into public forum.

Q17:

Yes, but a government agency that reviews classifications when complaints are made should still exist.

Q18:

Gaming, Movies, Television unless complaints are made

Q19:

Q20:

Q21:

Bring in an R 18+ classification for computer and console games.

Q22:

Q23:

No

Q24:

None, some should be tracked (child pornography for example) and regular users investigated.

Q25:

Q26:

No, states should be able to institute own classifications

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

Bring in an R 18+ classification for games

Other comments: