

CI 1273 A Bart

First name: Andrew

Last name: Bart

Q1:

Developing a new framework for classification.

Q2:

To ensure that material can be viewed by an appropriate audience and to ensure that all material can be accessed if appropriate. (for example trying to fit a game that should be R19+ in to the MA15+ category)

Q3:

No it should not.

Q4:

Yes, otherwise every video, flash game, picture and website would need to be classified before it could be "owned" in Australia.

Q5:

No

Q6:

No

Q7:

Yes

Q8:

They should be regulated in the same way as other content

Q9:

Yes

Q10:

No

Q11:

Q12:

It should only be classified if a complaint is received and these complaints should be closely scrutinised. What one person finds offensive should not apply to all.

Q13:

Parental control, not governmental control. Perhaps better education of the parents as to the dangers online.

Q14:

Q15:

Q16:

Q17:

Yes

Q18:

online content

Q19:

yes

Q20:

m15+ may be less clear than other classifications.

Q21:

Q22:

All media should be subject to the same classification schedule.

Q23:

yes. They should be identical.

Q24:

Terrorist manuals, child pornography, and other extremely violent pornography.

Q25:

Q26:

yes

Q27:

Q28:

yes

Q29:

Other comments: