

CI 1285 A Heiser

First name: Andrew

Last name: Heiser

Q1:

Developing a new framework.

Q2:

Consistency and rationality and free from religious hysteria.

Q3:

No.

Q4:

Yes.

Q5:

POTENTIAL impact should not matter.

Q6:

No.

Q7:

No.

Q8:

No. AV material carries much more impact. Sound recordings have less power and should be regulated accordingly.

Q9:

No.

Q10:

Content accessed in private ought not be classified.

Q11:

Q12:

Education for consumers, parents and children.

Q13:

Better parenting.

Q14:

Better parenting again.

Q15:

When it is to be displayed in public areas or using public media.

Q16:

Classify the material. Let individuals decide to access it or not

Q17:

Probably. Not sure.

Q18:

Q19:

I'm not sure. In the given example, it should be subsidised.

Q20:

Yes. They are straight forward.

Q21:

No, the current system seems to cover everything

Q22:

The biggest problem is the discrepancy between the states

Q23:

Yes. There needs to be more consistency in classifications.

Q24:

None.

Q25:

It is too restrictive.

Q26:

National guidelines would be more sensible.

Q27:

Q28:

yes.

Q29:

Other comments: