

CI 1345 J Chahine

First name: John

Last name: Chahine

Q1:

Yes

Q2:

Including R18+ classification

Q3:

No adults are adults regardless of medium.

Q4:

No.

Q5:

You can raise it to an adult rating

Q6:

The market determine their wants. It's up to the government to honour it.

Q7:

No art work as long as its not child pornography does not need to be classified.

Q8:

No.

Q9:

No. Restrictions are in place for each market. There just needs to ne ones that distinguish adult material.

Q10:

Public yes. Home no.

Q11:

The government have to believe adults are wise enough to handle mature themes content. Classified materials make us feel like you are treating us as children.

Q12:

Age restriction on console settings. Net protection on pc and parental lock on media players

Q13:

Government offering a pc protection program to all families as well as a guide to use with other mediums.

Q14:

That had to do with parenting and hoping they monitor their kids.

Q15:

All mediums should be categorized by age ratings.

Q16:

Government to promote internet software programs. Industry bodies to provide information on the types of security each medium has and users to make use of the security measures.

Q17:

Perhaps. You can always try

Q18:

No such thing. Child pornography is about the only restriction I can think of.

Q19:

Q20:

They are fine.

Q21:

R18+ for video games.

Q22:

Q23:

Q24:

Child pornography.

Q25:

Q26:

No.

Q27:

Attorney generals using ballots for each state.

Q28:

No to the people.

Q29:

Other comments: