

CI 1509 C Bock

First name: Chris

Last name: Bock

Q1:

New Framework. Same as the Old Framework.

Q2:

Censorship.

Q3:

No.

Q4:

No.

Q5:

No.

Q6:

No.

Q7:

No.

Q8:

No.

Q9:

No.

Q10:

No.

Q11:

None.

Q12:

DNS blacklists.

Q13:

Parenting.

Q14:

Parenting.

Q15:

When sold.

Q16:

None, revenue generation and consumption.

Q17:

Yes.

Q18:

All content.

Q19:

None and No.

Q20:

Classification is simple enough to be understood by anyone capable of operating a tray load optical drive.

Q21:

Existing classification categories should be replaced with parenting.

Q22:

Small fonts.

Q23:

Yes.

Q24:

None.

Q25:

No.

Q26:

Federal responsibility should be devolved.

Q27:

Repeal.

Q28:

OFLC should be defunded at the federal level.

Q29:

Repeal.

Other comments:

No liberal democracy on the planet has implemented, or had a compelling need to implement an anti-abortion firewall under the guise of 'protecting children from pornography'. Yet after a matter of weeks the purpose of the filter has mutated beyond recognition. One wonders what other ideas this proto-orwellian dystopia is going to suggest that we'll need protection from in the coming months.