

CI 1522 J Oake

First name: Jonathon

Last name: Oake

Q1:

The ALRC needs to develop a new framework for classification, from scratch

Q2:

Consistency

Q3:

No

Q4:

All content should only be classified in response to a complaint

Q5:

Yes. The potential impact of most online content is very small, due to the tiny, fragmented audience.

This content, with a tiny potential impact, should not be pre-classified, except in response to a complaint

Q6:

Yes. Why bother classifying every Youtube video which has been viewed by <10 people?

Q7:

Not by the government, no

Q8:

Yes - i.e. not at all

Q9:

Absolutely. See point Q6

Q10:

No

Q11:

Q12:

Education of parents / gatekeepers

Q13:

Education of parents / gatekeepers is the ONLY effective remedy

Q14:

Q15:

Q16:

Education

Q17:

Likely no. The only truly effective model is education

Q18:

Q19:

Q20:

I think there is general confusion as the situation with video games, and lack of R18+, so no

Q21:

No

Q22:

Q23:

Q24:

Q25:

Q26:

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

Other comments: