Q2:

To introduce an R18+ classification and to better the already existing classification. Why should we adults fall under your choice to not have adult classifications. It is a public decision that has already been made by thousand, though they have not done this survey, because they dont know about it.

Q3:

Q4:

No. content should not be subject to classification just because a number of people complain about it. The number not complaining out number the people complaining. If they don't like it, Too bad. Their decision should not affect everybody else.

Q5:

Q6:

Q7:

customers or consumers, should be advised of content that may disturb them in any shape or form.

Q8:

Q9:

Q10:

if content is only accessed through home entertainment, then it should not be classified. On the other hand, if content were to be shown in public, a less disturbing "demo" should be in place, but also advising of adult content.
