

CI 1772 S Wise

First name: Simon

Last name: Wise

Q1:

New framework

Q2:

Correct, honest and fair classifications with open minded views for adapting to future standards

Q3:

No

Q4:

Yes. But only to be reviewed by a panel

Q5:

No the internet is free.

Q6:

No

Q7:

No

Q8:

No

Q9:

No

Q10:

No

Q11:

Only torture, snuff and kiddy porn should be of concern

Q12:

Single most method is educating parents to care. a program freely distributed by the government should be used

Q13:

a program freely distributed by the government should be used

Q14:

Its pretty much fine outside of again the parents

Q15:

MA/R content

Q16:

Making sure stores comply and if a complaint about a child accessing inappropriate content comes in check they are using a net nanny type program. Parents are too lazy or computer illiterate.

Q17:

Yes

Q18:

G and PG and M

Q19:

Where an independent decision is made around a controversial or over publicized item

Q20:

I don't believe so. People are lazy.

Q21:

Games need an R rating in line with other media

Q22:

All formats done the same way video/DVDs are done

Q23:

Yes

Q24:

Snuff films, child porn. But not in the way the government plans. Talk to industry experts

Q25:

Its too much

Q26:

Yes and yes

Q27:

A unified Australian censorship scheme

Q28:

No one cares about the commonwealth

Q29:

Listen to the masses and actually advertise these so you get a reasonable response instead of this closed biased rubbish

Other comments:

I also submitted for the games R rating