

CI 1851 J Freeman

First name: Jason

Last name: Freeman

Q1:

New Framework, similar to the american system, the publisher applies their own rating based on a set of guidelines, with a classification board stepping in where a certain number of complaints are registered about a title

Q2:

Allow adults to make their own choices when it comes to buying mature content in games.

Q3:

No, using the above classification system, publishers would be able to give their game an appropriate rating.

Q4:

Yes

Q5:

Yes

Q6:

No

Q7:

No

Q8:

No

Q9:

No

Q10:

No

Q11:

Q12:

For children parental supervision, For adults there should be no restrictions

Q13:

parental supervision, and personal setup of restrictions using software or routers.

Q14:

n/a

Q15:

at POS

Q16:

Q17:

Q18:

Games

Q19:

yes, indie games

Q20:

Q21:

Yes, R18+ for games

Q22:

one system for all media

Q23:

No, an entire new system for all media is required

Q24:

None,

Q25:

No

Q26:

Yes, there should be a national system

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

Other comments: