Q1:

Yes

Q2:

Take into account media available from different mediums such as gaming, apps etc. and correlate the data from other international standards of classifying such media and to have Australia on par with the rest of the world

Q3:

No, the same content whether it's assessed from a phone, internet or game console should not affect the classification because it's the same content across the mediums

Q4:

yes, it should be classified only if both parties come to an agreement on what that should be. Classification should not be based a bias response to the material presented, hear both side of the story

Q5:

yes it should be, that is why the system needs to be updated, to many children have access to the restricted content because the parents are ill-informed of what the classification is

Q6:

no, the material will meet it;s intended target audience whether or not it's classified

Q7:

with just a warning before viewing required, the artist has the rite to freedom of speech of their artworks

Q8:

the system currently used is suffice

Q16:

to keep up to date with international standards

Q17:

Q18:

Q19:

yes, because they are unable to raise the funds required very easily

Q20:

M15 and MA15 there's too much confusion, remove MA and go straight to R18, a lot of the MA15 content would still be unsuitable for anyone under the age of 18 and yet they can access it

Q21:

Only need to get rid of MA15 and go from M to R18 and add RC (Refused Classification), there's is no need to ban material all together from this country if it is properly classified as R18 or RC (Refused Classification)

Q22:

raise awareness

Q23:

yes, both are forms of freedom of speech and both should share the same classifications as each other

Q24:
