

CI 1955 D Sheehy

First name: David

Last name: Sheehy

Q1:

Yes.

Q2:

For books, music, movies, video games and any other forms of media or entertainment to be given a classification system that anyone can understand.

Q3:

No.

Q4:

No.

Q5:

All content should be classified.

Q6:

No.

Q7:

No.

Q8:

????????????????????????????????????????????????????????

Q9:

No.

Q10:

Yes, if the consumer is at home, s/he has the right to view, or listen to, any legally owned content, no matter what the classification is.

Q11:

Q12:

Q13:

By their Guardians.

Q14:

By working with the companies that make said product but not by punishing the consumer.

Q15:

From the start.

Q16:

Government agencies and industry bodies should help the users know what is to be expected of a product and protect said user but if the user understands the risks, they should not be stopped from buying and viewing/listening to said product.

Q17:

Yes.

Q18:

Q19:

Q20:

The difference between the classification of video games and the classification of films and movies does cause confusion in the community.

Q21:

An R18+ in every category should be required, as well as an MA15+.

Q22:

By creating guidelines that cover all media formats and applying said guidelines.

Q23:

Q24:

Q25:

Yes.

Q26:

Yes.

Q27:

Q28:

Yes.

Q29:

By helping people to understand the system.

Other comments: