Last name: Kolesnikov

Q1:

YES

Q2:

ACB should admit video games are no longer "child's play". I'm 29 years old IT contractor and I'm VERY upset with some of its decisions.

Q3:

Yes - makes no sense trying and "classifying" what one can download from the Internet.

Q4:

Yes

Q5:

Yes, as long as video games are no longer "content designed for children"

Q12:

You cannot control it. As long as it is legal - it should be available.

Q13:

This must be parents' responsibility.

Q14:

It is well controlled - no "better" control required.

Q20:

MA15+ vs Refused Classification. I really see no sense in Dead Space 2 wearing MA15 badge whilst Mortal Kombat is RC. In my opinion, DS2 is much worse than MK.

Q21:

R18+ for video games, obviously. As long as it is legal for me, being adult, to subscribe for Foxtel erotic channels or to rent "Hostel 2" at the Blockbuster - I see no reason why government should decide what video games I play.

Q22:

Q23:

Yes, absolutely.

Q24:

No content should be prohibited - it makes no technical sense. Deal with offenders, not with public freedoms.

Q25:

No.
