Q1:

Q2:

Guiding people as to the type of content to be expected and restricting access completely in as few cases as possible

Q3:

No. Content does not change based on technology or platform. Restricting content in one form when it is available in another is inconsistent and unfair

Q4:

No. That gives too much power to minorities to enforce their views on the majority of the population. Classification should be objective and impartial. Complaints rarely are.
