

CI 2229 B Heeren

First name: Bart

Last name: Heeren

Q1:

Developing a new framework, particularly focusing on an R18+ rating for all media, including video games.

Q2:

To provide content to those who are mature enough to view it, and block it from those who are not.

Q3:

No. The medium of the content does not matter.

Q4:

No. Content should be looked at beforehand by the classification board and classified appropriately.

Q5:

Yes. If the content shows acts that are socially unacceptable (violence, swearing, drugs etc.), the content should be classified accordingly.

Q6:

Q7:

Q8:

Yes. If the music has adult themes, or coarse language, the recording should be given a clear warning, like with movies and games.

Q9:

Yes. If the product is to be sold to the market, it should be classified.

Q10:

No.

Q11:

Q12:

Q13:

Some kind of age input, which allows and denies access to certain websites.

Q14:

Harsher penalties to staff who sell the items to those who are underage. Some kind of locking mechanism in the magazines that can only be opened behind the counter.

Q15:

Whenever it is being sold to a market.

Q16:

Q17:

Q18:

Q19:

Q20:

I think "Themes" and variants of are quite broad. they need to be better explained.

Q21:

Racism, Discrimination, psychological disturbance, etc.

Q22:

Q23:

Q24:

Child Pornography,

Q25:

Q26:

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

Other comments: