

CI 2298 N Poublon

First name: Nicolas

Last name: Poublon

Q1:

developing a new framework for classification

Q2:

R18 rating for everything, movies, video games, tv shows etc.

Q3:

No, the content itself should be classified and not the platform upon which the content is accessed.

Q4:

All content should be classified.

Q5:

Potential impact should not affect if a product should be classified or not.

Content designed for children should be classified across all media.

Q6:

No, all content should be classified equally.

Q7:

No

Q8:

No, Art of any form should not be regulated in any way and should be open for all to access.

Q9:

No, all content should be classified equally regardless of size or composition of an audience.

Q10:

No.

Q11:

N/A

Q12:

There are no effective methods to controlling online content, if somebody wants to access content online they will.

Q13:

By parents playing a more active role in what their child is doing online.

Q14:

Force people to show ID to be able to purchase it.

Q15:

Always.

Q16:

To classify content fairly, regardless of any of the factors discussed above.

Q17:

N/A

Q18:

N/A

Q19:

Yes, classification of independent content should be subsidised.

Q20:

No, There is no R18 rating for video games, while pornographic movies are fine.

Q21:

Yes

R18 for Video Games, Movies, TV etc.

Q22:

All content regardless of format should be classified in the same way as any other.

Q23:

Yes

Q24:

None.

Q25:

No, nothing online should be restricted.

Q26:

Yes. Ensure that state and territory laws are same throughout the country.

Q27:

N/A

Q28:

Yes

Q29:

N/A

Other comments:

I support R18 for Video Games!