To whom this may concern...

I could not be bothered filling out this form through and through but I am strongly FOR an R18 rating in video games.

To deny the beauty of blood, gore and nudity from the elder generation of gamers repulses me. If you are over the age of eighteen you should be allowed to play what you deem worthy for your own personal pleasures.

I do not play video games, nor do I care for them, but given this opportunity to make the lives of other gamers a happy one, I could not pass on it.

The struggle some TRUE gamers go through on a daily basis is sickening, and I just want to help my fellow brethren in whatever way I can. I weep as I type this. My keyboard is stained with the tears of a thousand heartbreaks.

This is my final plea. I urge you to consider an R18 rating; it is only logical and beneficial.

Please and thank you.

Yours sincerely, Cayley.
