Q1:

A New framework. The current rules are so ambiguous as to be idiotic.

Q2:

To ensure that content is only sold directly to those that should be accessing it based on age criteria.

NOT to keep grown adults from accessing ANY material that isn't illegal.

Q3:

Voluntary classification is the only kind of classification that should exist for material aimed at adults.

Q4:

An artist should only be required to classify their work if they choose to do so. If the wowsers don't like it then they don't have to look at it.

Q5:

Yes. Work aimed at children should be classified across all media, exempting classical works of art or sculpture.
