

CI 445 M Gogos

First name: Michael

Last name: Gogos

Q1:

Improving key elements of the existing framework

Q2:

Freedom to let the public decide for themselves and their dependents what is and what is not appropriate.

Q3:

no

Q4:

no

Q5:

no. Parents are the ultimate responsibility for

Q6:

no

Q7:

no

Q8:

yes

Q9:

no

Q10:

no

Q11:

Q12:

There are no effective methods of control. Anything that is implemented will very easily be circumvented by those who wish to circumvent, and will be a burden to every one else.

Q13:

Parental involvement and education.

Q14:

There are no effective methods of control. Anything that is implemented will very easily be circumvented by those who wish to circumvent, and will be a burden to every one else.

Q15:

never

Q16:

government agencies - none

industry bodies - systems and procedures to let users determine what they and their dependents can and cannot access

users - full control

Q17:

Q18:

Q19:

Q20:

no

Q21:

Q22:

Q23:

yes

Q24:

What is prohibited now by laws and prosecution should stay prohibited, and should not be 'filtered' by a system will very easily be circumvented by those who wish to circumvent, and will be a burden to every one else. Prosecute the people that produce, distribute and access the material, but be clear that these people WILL circumvent any filter, and it will be trivial for them. The threat of prosecution needs to be very, very strong.

Q25:

yes, but see q24

Q26:

yes

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

The debate on the classification of media needs to be separated from the enforcement of the classifications.

Other comments:

The debate on the classification of media needs to be separated from the enforcement of the classifications.