Q7:

Artwork depicting children in a manner that is exploitive or offensive, including any sexualised depictions of children, should be refused clasification, regardless of any alleged artistic merit.

Q8:

Yes - music with lyrics which demean women by treating them as sexual objects have been curently permitted for sale in Australia, proving that the current self-regulation sysytem for music is inadequate.

Q21:

The existing classification categories should remain, apart from the X18 category for films which should be abolished.

Films containing explicit depictions of sexual acts should be refused classification. Such films exploit and demean women.

They have been implicated in the sexual abuse and premature sexualisation of children.

No R18+ classification should be introduced for computer games, because the violence in these games is associated with an increase in violent attitudes and behaviour.
