

CI 629 H Faithfull

First name: Henry

Last name: Faithfull

Q1:

We just need an R18+ so we can get all the games to their full capacity.

Q2:

R18+ rating needs to be implemented.

Q3:

No.

Q4:

I think content should be classified as it is. If there is something that is potentially offensive to stupid people, ie sex scenes, let them complain and then review it if needed, but no.

Q5:

I concur.

Q6:

Q7:

Q8:

No, certainly not.

Q9:

Q10:

If you mean that accessing it at home makes it less classified, more lax or whatever, sure.

Q11:

Q12:

Q13:

Q14:

Special sections in shops? Nude magazines do not concern me, though I do not like them, people have the right to access pornography (I think).

Q15:

Q16:

Q17:

Q18:

Rape, ramp it up to R18 so we never see that crap.

Q19:

If you're thinking about LA Zombie or whatever that horrific movie was, I think people should be able to view it if they like, for artistic innovation or other.

Q20:

Q21:

Q22:

Q23:

Q24:

I dont think anything should be banned, if anything though, make it child pornography, no one should see that. However, there is a blur to what is which, like pornography that is of mature women who pose as children or something, for this reason I suggest not blacklisting any sites. Aside from this, sites have other content on them which is not illicit but entertaining,

Q25:

Q26:

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

Other comments:

Give us an R18 rating for games, don't blacklist sites, people will access things whether you like it or not, dear government.