

CI 636 J T

First name: Joel

Last name: T

Q1:

A new framework

Q2:

The national classification "scheme" should be discussed between the government and gaming (and movie-making) bodies.

Q3:

No. Apart from horribly graphic movie content.

Q4:

Yes. It should.

Q5:

To and extent. I have a headache, but I am filling out this form as a gamer. A young gamer.

Q6:

The content should be reviewed before a panel of confederates before it is released.

Q7:

No, because artwork is a form of free expression.

Q8:

Yes. However they should only be rated, not banned.

Q9:

No. I don't see why.

Q10:

Yes.

Q11:

The amount of the content that is in the game/movie/art.

Q12:

Guilt.

Q13:

The community, and MORE moderators, as a 9 year old I became a moderator for Club Penguin. Children who have a correct sense of right and right make the best moderators.

Q14:

Supervision, better teachings of right and wrong.

Q15:

When its only appropriate for a small audience.

Q16:

Supervision, the regulation should be handled by a third-party.

Q17:

Q18:

Games.

Q19:

To and extent.

Q20:

Not really, people just ignore them if the movie looks good.

Q21:

To an extent.

Q22:

To an extent.

Q23:

To an extent.

Q24:

To an extent.

Q25:

To an extent.

Q26:

To an extent.

Q27:

To an extent.

Q28:

To an extent.

Q29:

To an extent.

Other comments: