

CI 687 D Neil

First name: Dane

Last name: Neil

Q1:

They should improve the parts of it as to who decides what goes in. I would also like to see R18+ brought in to video games so that there are no restrictions.

Q2:

Yes, to make an R18+ classification for video games.

Q3:

Yes, because one is scripted and out of control (movies) and in video games you are in control of what happens.

Q4:

Yes

Q5:

No. Games should be classified for individual audiences to reduce impact on children and younger audiences.

Q6:

No. Unless there is a debate about a classification.

Q7:

Yes, video games are, in my opinion, classified as art, this should apply to all forms.

Q8:

Yes.

Q9:

No. Unless the impact of the media is too strong for a younger audience.

Q10:

No.

Q11:

Protection of children. The right for adults to view what they want, when they want.

Q12:

Filtering, but not restricting sites.

Q13:

Buy googling things.

Q14:

Held at different places or behind a counter or something like that.

Q15:

All the time .

Q16:

To make sure all things are given a fair submission with no restricted content.

Q17:

Yes.

Q18:

R18+ classification.

Q19:

NA

Q20:

None.

Q21:

Yes, R18+ for video games. No, there should be no removing of any classifications.

Q22:

In games you can control a character, in movies, you cannot.

Q23:

If this gets us R18+, then yes.

Q24:

Child pornography.

Q25:

No.

Q26:

Yes, we need R18.

Q27:

R18+ for video games.

Q28:

Yes

Q29:

R18+ for video games.

Other comments: