

CI 723 D Douds

First name: Dave

Last name: Douds

Q1:

Might be an idea if you start from the beginning.

Q2:

Ensuring classifications are fitted to items, not forcing items into existing classifications

Q3:

No, content should be classified independently of its media.

Q4:

Q5:

These are two separate questions.

Q6:

No

Q7:

Not "some"; either do them all or don't do any.

Q8:

Music, yes. Audio books should be classified the same as books.

Q9:

Q10:

No.

Q11:

Q12:

Q13:

By. Their. Parents.

Q14:

By the vendors of this content.

Q15:

On the packaging and during advertisement.

Q16:

Q17:

Q18:

content designed for children, educational material, literature, porn

Q19:

Q20:

Q21:

<R> for games, seriously.

Q22:

Have the same ratings available for different types of content.

Q23:

Q24:

CP. Offline too. However your current guidelines for determining CP (breast size? really?) could use adjusting.

Q25:

Q26:

Yes, classification needs to be consistent across the country.

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

Other comments: