Last name: Baker

Q1:

Whatever option brings an R Rating in to the scheme.

Q2:

Bringing an R rating into the classification line up

Q3:

No

Q4:

No, you should be able to use your own discretion otherwise why do we have you?

Q5:

If an R Rating comes in then yes it should

Q6:

No, I don't know why something should get an R rating because it's going to more people than something that won't go to somewhere else. This inconsistency is what causes problems.

Q7:

The cover should be done on a case by case basis. Like adult magazines a black cover could be included over the cover.

Q8:

I don't see why not.

Q9:

No

Q10:

No

Q11:

The same that is decided in movies

Q12:

Educating parents

Q13:

By educating parents. It's easy to access adult material that parents need to be educated and monitoring computer usage

Q14:

By making the places that sell them more responsible for the selling of content to underage people.

Q15:

When content hits M ratings +

Q16:

To give warnings to the parents of children who are playing these games. It shouldn't be your job to tell us over 18s what we can and can't buy.

Q17:

Adding an R rating letting people understand games / movies are rated on the same level

Q18:

Movies, Music, Games, Magazines

Q19:

No

Q20:

No MA / M. Because movies have an R Rating and games don't the MA rating can be quite a bit stronger when it comes to the content included verse an MA rated movie

Q21:

Yes, R

Q22:

G, PG, M, MA, R

Q23:

Yes

Q24:

None. Introduce a system when signing up to an online service, age must be verified.

Q25:

No, RC content in Gaming is appropriate in an environment it has an R rating.

Q26:

Yes, it should be national and people should understand that content including X and Y will be classified Z on any platform

Q27:

Q28:

It should be done on a national level to prevent inconstant results
