

CI 799 R Hockey

First name: Richard

Last name: Hockey

Q1:

new frame work

Q2:

To provide consumers information on content

Q3:

no

Q4:

no

Q5:

no

Q6:

no

Q7:

no

Q8:

no

Q9:

no

Q10:

no

Q11:

none

Q12:

There are no effective methods

Q13:

parents

Q14:

It can't be

Q15:

when on sale or rent

Q16:

Government nil, industry should be able to do this.

Q17:

probably

Q18:

most content

Q19:

If government wants to classify content they should pay for it

Q20:

mostly

Q21:

R for electronic games

Q22:

Just use the same ones

Q23:

Yes

Q24:

Probably not actually possible

Q25:

Yes

Q26:

State and territory laws should be explicitly excluded from this.

Q27:

A single Commonwealth scheme

Q28:

Yes

Q29:

None

Other comments:

National classification schemes are now redundant. Almost all content can now be sourced directly from outside Australia.