Q1:

Improving key elements

Q2:

Make sure content such as game can get R18 rating.

Q3:

no

Q4:

no

Q5:

no.

content for children should be classified across all media.

Q6:

no

Q7:

no

Q8:

no

Q9:

no

Q10:

content for public should be, content for home should have option for classification

Q11:

Q12:

information about content should be available, but should not be blocked automatically etc, people should be able to make their own choice

Q13:

Parents should be looking out for their kids - to see what they are doing - that's the parents' job

Q14:

a gating facility could be used, showing proof of age in some way

Q15:

if its MA or higher rating

Q16:

the classification should be there, and information made available, but up to users to view the information to make their choice on consuming the content

Q17:

sounds like it would be better, as currently the censor boards could be "stacked" by the government to force their views

Q18:

Q19:

if its funded by the government, then it should extend to classification

Q20:

With regards to games, MA15 is where the confusion lies. If an R18 rating existed then games could get released in Australia.

Q21:

R18 for games

Q22:

Perhaps have some sort of parallel with the european classification system

Q23:

yes

Q24:

Q25:

Some content, no. Other content yes (like terrorist activities etc). It seems ridiculous that games that get NC rating cannot be brought into the country, where they wouldn't affect national security or society in general.
