Q1:

An R18+ rating for games would make the classification board give the correct rating to a game rather than something lower to avoid refusing it.

Q2:

To let people know whether something is suitable for a certain age group>

Q3:

I think that everything should be classified in the same manner.

Q4:

If something is unsuitable but minor and barely noticeable than I would agree.

Q5:

If the impact is noticeable than it should affect the classification. Content for children should be classified in a different way.

Q6:

It shouldn't affect whether it should be classified.

Q7:

Only if absolutely necessary.
