Q1:

Developing a new system, in regards to video games, in order to make that form of media consistent with other forms. Its a shame to see how it works, considering Left 4 Dead 2 had the * censored out of it, and yet Dead Island, which is CLEARLY more violent and realistic, gets through fine?

Considering they are both zombie games with dismemberment, I fail to understand how that system is protecting minors, by letting the more violent of the two games get through uncensored.

Inconsistency.

Q2:

To both allow freedom of choice, to adults, and restrict content which SHOULD be 18+ (Duke Nukem, Violent movies etc), to adults, with stronger enforcement and awareness among parents and adults.
