First name: Daniel
Last name: Williams

Q1:
A new framework.
Q2:
Freedom for adults to choose what they wish to watch with clear labeling / guidelines on content describing the adult themes involved.
Q3:
No, stop wasting tax payer money inventing new ways to restrict content.
Q4:
No.
Q5:
No.
Q6:
No.
Q7:
No.
Q8:
Yes.
Q9:
No.
Q10:
No.
Q11:
Only the currently classified media should be classified.
Q12:
Adult supervision and personal judgement.
Q13:
Parental guidance and supervision.
Q14:
It shouldn't be.
Q15:
The current rules are adequate.
Q16:
They should only regulate content inappropriate to minors. Otherwise should only serve as a classification service.
Q17:
Definitely.
Q18:

Movies, Games and Tv Shows

Q19:

Yes, all classifications should be subsidised.

Q20:

Q21:

Yes, Movies need a X classification that includes adult content that would currently fall into RC classification. Games need a R+ and X classification.

Q22:

Follow the USA model, it would also save a bucket load of classification money.

Q23:

Yes.

Q24:

Content depicting sexual acts to minors. That is all.

Q25:

No.

Q26:

Yes

Q27:

cooperation between the states and territories is important and should remain.

Q28:

Yes assuming that the commonwealth proposes legislation that a super majority of the states agree on.

Q29:

Other comments: