

CI 957 N Black

First name: Nick

Last name: Black

Q1:

Improving the existing framework.

Q2:

To extend the classification system to allow for every type of content. No content should be banned or outlawed.

Q3:

No. However, some platforms will require platform-specific classifications.

Q4:

Yes

Q5:

Q6:

Q7:

No. However, if that artwork is considered by many to be offensive, then a warning should be displayed.

Q8:

Yes

Q9:

No.

Q10:

No

Q11:

Q12:

There should be no 'controlling' of access to online content, but instead when content has been given a restricted classification, a notice informing the user should be displayed.

Q13:

Q14:

Q15:

Q16:

Q17:

No.

Q18:

Q19:

Q20:

Q21:

Games need an adult rating. This should be the same as film (R18+ and X18+).

Q22:

Q23:

Yes

Q24:

Absolutely none. This is imperative.

Q25:

Q26:

Federal laws and body's should govern all classification within Australia to ensure consistency.

Q27:

Q28:

Yes

Q29:

Other comments: