

CI 990 C Nguyen

First name: Chris

Last name: Nguyen

Q1:

Yes

Q2:

The reconstruction of a classification scheme regarding video games and movies to allow a greater variety of products to be available to a consumer without compromising the quality of a product due to unnecessary censorship.

Q3:

No.

Q4:

Maybe, depending on the severity of the complaint and the logical reasoning regarding the complaint.

Q5:

A product should not be classified based on potential impact at all as it could possible lead to preemptive censorship which would undermine the freedom of consumer choice or deny it all together. Content designed for children should be classified across all media.

Q6:

No

Q7:

It depends. Art is art although some people should consider the possible impact on younger minds.

Q8:

No. There is not reason to regulate music and sound recordings for explicit lyrics etc. Some of the music which is acceptable now days deal with sexual themes which are worded in a subvertive manner. Some of these sexual themes are deal with cheating, infidelity, sexual teasing etc. in songs like Last Friday Night by Katy Perry yet they are somehow still acceptable to play on air.

If such songs and audio recordings are easily sold to the public, why should songs with swearing or death metal be censored, regulated, embargoed or frowned upon just because they have curse words or have questionable artwork?

Q9:

No

Q10:

No. If a person is teased for listening to songs from My Little Pony at their school library, it is that person's fault for choosing to listen to such a song in a public place without any regard for his/her social perception around the people s/he knows.

Q11:

Q12:

Q13:

It may be possible to filter internet access by multiple usernames and passwords although I am no IT expert. It is ALWAYS better for a child's access to be restricted offline by concerned parents of guardians.

Q14:

Q15:

Q16:

Q17:

Q18:

Q19:

Q20:

Q21:

Q22:

Q23:

Q24:

Q25:

No.

Q26:

Q27:

Q28:

Q29:

Restructure the framework sensibly.

Other comments: