To whom it may concern;

I am emailing you to stress the high importance catholic schools are in Australia. We are a Christian country with Christian beliefs, therefore it is so important to have Catholic schools since we live in a Christian country.

I am of christian background and my kids attend catholic schools, it plays a large role in my kids and my families life. Without the choice of a catholic school which follow our catholic beliefs then why live in Australia? It will no longer be a Christian country? Our morals, values and beliefs will begin to die and the country will no longer remain a christian country.

I have many friends of different faiths and everyone respects each other, this is why we all live in Australia as we all have a choice regardless of our faith. However australia is slowly taking away our choices we have and instead telling us what we are and aren't allowed to do, and subjecting us people to very immoral beliefs and behaviours.

Each person in this country has a right to live how they choose, however how is it fair australia can make laws surrounding giving choice to the gay community yet take away choices from the Catholic community? This is discrimination to the Catholic people.

I urge you to please keep our catholic schools without inflicting these new anti discrimination laws preventing our catholic schools from continuing the way they practice and inflicting limitations on our catholic schools.

This is not the Australian way, we are loosing our values. Our kids are going to grow up in a very strange world without clear values, beliefs and faith.

Please do not pass these new laws onto our catholic schools. There are public schools and independent schools for the ones who choose not to go to a Catholic school, so why is there a need to pass on laws limiting what and how our catholic schools teach???

Please DO NOT pass these new laws.

Kind Regards,
