

Religious schools should be entitled to require employees to act in their roles that uphold the ethos and values of that faith and the school should be free to favour hiring employees who share these values.

(Utting,2021)

I support this proposition 100%.